

With a grade-separated trail extending into the park, vehicle and pedestrian traffic have clear zones of use, improving both safety and comfort at the park entrance. The incorporation of shade trees and lighting increase pedestrian comfort throughout the day on the trail and the adjacent soccer field, and also serve as a traffic-calming device for vehicles entering the park.

Existing view looking north towards concessions stand

Existing view looking north from park entry drive

Edgington Memorial Park

RDG Planning & Design

LAs: Anne Machian, PLA, ASLA; Bruce Niedermyer, PLA, ASLA, LEED AP
Intern: Dani Hodgson

Iowa State University | Trees Forever | Iowa Department of Transportation

